Macaulay Honors College at The City University of New York congratulates Oceanside resident Ariel Yardeni '16 (Hunter College) for winning the prestigious Yenching Scholarship. The Yenching Academy of Peking University builds bridges between China and the world through an interdisciplinary Master's program in China Studies for outstanding graduates from all over the globe. Ariel is majoring in Chinese Studies with a certificate in Public Policy and a minor in Biology.

"I have been interested in studying all things China since I began studying Mandarin in the 10th grade," said Ariel. "Spending an extended time in China will allow me to delve deeper and explore how my involvement with Chinese studies can help shape my global career. It will also be an incredibly humbling experience to study among such high-achieving peers, all of whom have done really cool and unique

Ariel, who graduated from Oceanside H.S., is also doing research on LGBT inclusive health education and hopes to explore health education policy in China, as well. She has been to Asia four times, and twice before to China.
